

How to Curry paste bag packaging system

Curry paste bag packaging system is simple to operate and automatically completes all tasks such as metering, bag making, filling, sealing, batch number printing, cutting, and counting; automatically completes the packaging of granules, fluids, and semi-fluids, powders, tablets, and capsules.

Curry paste bag packaging system features

1. Compact and rational structure, stable and excellent performance, simple operation, and maintenance.
2. Multi-functional digital frequency converter, step-less variable speed.
3. Easy to change molds, flexible.
4. Automatic feeding and counting functions.
5. The drive section is equipped with various protection devices and fault indicators.
6. With a variety of precision operating parts, no packaging material is wasted.

Curry paste bag packaging system is suitable for sachet packaging of powder materials, such as flour, cornflour, milk powder, soy milk powder, starch, pharmaceutical powder, spice powder, yeast powder, coffee powder, pesticide powder, etc.